UrAmerica PLC
(UrAmerica or the Company)

UrAmerica closes private placement

In early April the Company entered into subscription agreements with existing shareholders Longview Capital Partners, Jan Hendrickx and a new strategic investor Niger Uranium Limited whereby they agreed to subscribe for 6,022,099 ordinary shares at a price of US$1.093 per share for an aggregate subscription price of US$6,582,153. The subscription funds are to be received in instalments between now and September 2008. These investors were also granted warrants to subscribe for an additional 6,022,099 shares, which will ensure additional future funding for the Company.

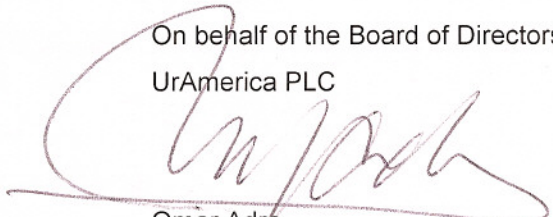

The proceeds of the placement has allowed the Company to begin an exploration programme the 21 April 2008, followed by a drilling programme scheduled to commence on September 2008 on its licences -covering 1.800 km² in the provinces of Chubut and Salta, the two most prospective uranium districts in Argentina-.

Niger Uranium Limited (a uranium exploration and investment company with African interests in the Republic of Niger and Namibia, focused on the rapid development and acquisition of near term and advanced projects and listed in the AIM Stock Exchange in London) will advise UrAmerica on its exploration programme and provide the Company with access to their extensive know-how.

The Company has also added two more directors to the Board, Neil Herbert (former CFO Uramin) who will act as Chairman and Ian Stalker (current Deputy Chairman of Niger Uranium and former CEO Uramin. Uramin was acquired by AREVA by 2.5 billion US$ in September 2007) as a non-executive director.

UrAmerica PLC, a junior mining company incorporated in the UK on June 2007, is engaged in the Identification, Acquisition and Exploration of properties with uranium potential. The Company is currently operating in Argentina, Colombia and Paraguay. UrAmerica aims to be the leading Uranium Junior Mining Company in Latin America

On behalf of the Board of Directors of
